About the speaker

Tiffany Dahlberg, Founder of Ready2ACT and PMP®, has over 25 years of experience in helping over 700 organizations and 5000 people save time and money through smart project management, business analysis, and professional development. She specializes in customizing training and facilitation services to help companies improve their project success through their own people and getting their desired results.

Tiffany has contributed to the success of several Fortune 500 companies, mid-size corporations, start-up companies, and non-profit organizations, including Ball Aerospace, Tri-State G&T, Newmont Mining, Barrick, Kinross, Wells Fargo, Coors, IHS Energy, Chicago Title, Charles Schwab, Staples, Chipotle, Bureau of Land Management, CenturyLink, and USDA Forest Service to name a few.

Tiffany taught management courses for both MBA programs and undergraduate business programs at the University of Phoenix – Denver. At the University of Colorado at Denver, she currently teaches her own project management and business analysis programs in which students can earn Continuing Education Units (CEUs). Tiffany is an active member of the Project Management Institute (PMI), Vistage (CEO membership organization), National Speakers Association (NSA), and the Association for Talent Development (ATD formerly ASTD).
