Welcome to our New Treasurer

Welcome to Rocky Mountain SWEP's new treasurer Elly Miller. Elly is taking over for Lauren Scharding, who recently moved back home to pursue her career goal of becoming a physical therapist. Thanks to Elly to taking on this role in the SWEP leadership team!

Enviro News:

Officials at the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment have decided to revoke a radioactive materials license for Piñon Ridge uranium mill near Naturita. The company was proposing to build a mill to process uranium from local mines in western Colorado at an estimated cost of $120 million. The proposed mill would process 500 tons a day of uranium and vanadium ore from mines in western Colorado.
